About the Report

The 2022 Report prepared by our university for the fourth United Nations Sustainable Development Goal, Quality Education, provides a summary of lifelong learning opportunities offered within and outside our university, contributing to our students and society. Activities, initiatives, and projects conducted with the support of our university academics and external stakeholders to support the youth and adulthood phase are presented in this report. Additionally, the report summarizes the performance of our university in 2022 through the active student and alumni profile.

Acknowledgment

We express our gratitude to the esteemed academics, administrative unit leaders, and staff of our university who have contributed to the content of the Quality Education Report. We also extend our thanks to our dear students and internal and external stakeholders.

Frequently Asked Questions About Architecture and Interior Architecture

The talk, held in the Mimar Sinan hall as part of the Interior Design Program, featured our graduate and architectural designer Rümeysa Karlıdağ along with interior architect Nihatcan Daniş. In an enjoyable and informal discussion guided by students' questions, various aspects of "Architecture and Interior Design" were explored, addressing inquiries about the industry. First and second-year students from the Interior Design Program had the opportunity to engage with the speakers, gaining insights into the industry's dynamics and environmental influences, and also had the chance to ask any questions they had in mind.

6. “Come To Gelişim” Scholarship Program

The "Come To Gelişim" Program, implemented by Istanbul Gelişim University in 2019, is a university admission program that offers additional scholarship opportunities to students who aspire to achieve success with their talent, experience, ideas, or projects. The program provides the opportunity for prospective students preparing for university to establish their own success criteria and defines "special scholarships" for them to evaluate areas open to improvement. Applicants distinguish themselves by detailing their unique qualities and talents in a motivation letter when applying to the "Come To Gelişim" Program. Applications, evaluated by a commission, are granted additional scholarships, determined by the commission and in addition to any other scholarships the student may have earned through exams. Undergraduate, graduate, and transfer students can apply for the "Come To Gelişim" Program. The number of students supported by the "Come To Gelişim" Program scholarship for the academic years 2020-2021, 2021-2022, and 2022-2023 is provided below.
