The documentary "Kadin Eli" (Female Wonder), supported by Istanbul Gelisim University (IGU) Faculty of Fine Arts, achieved notable success by becoming one of the top seven finalists in the 4th Cosmetics Short Film Competition. Directed by Lecturer Ahmet Bikiç from the Communication and Design Department, the documentary aims to highlight women's labor in agricultural production and their efforts in sustainable entrepreneurship.

Research Assistant Mustafa Dallı, a faculty member of the Interior Architecture and Environmental Design (English) Department, Faculty of Fine Arts at IGU, presented two papers at the 9th Ayasofya International Multidisciplinary Scientific Research Congress held on July 14-15. His presentations were titled: "The Convergence of Procurement and Technology: An Evaluation of the Integration of Project Procurement Management and Building Information Modeling", and "Rethinking Project Management in Architecture: Leadership, Talent Integration, and Performance Optimization."

Istanbul Gelisim University (IGU), Faculty of Fine Arts, Department of Radio, Television and Cinema, in collaboration with its external partner apart Art Association, has opened paper submissions for the 3rd International Short Film, Video, and Photography Symposium.

Supported by the Turkish Ministry of Culture and Tourism General Directorate of Cinema and Istanbul Gelisim University, the symposium will be held on October 24-26, 2025, at the Kadıköy Municipality Barış Manço Cultural Center.
