LATEST NEWS FROM IGU

TEKMER Director Hande Ceylan Dayan visited KOSGEB Ikitelli Director Tolga Erkan in his office. During the meeting, the executive board decisions were evaluated and discussions were held regarding the educational programs that will be conducted afterward.

Istanbul Gelisim Vocational School Computer Aided Design and Animation Program's Lect. Murat Karaova contributed to the museum to be newly established in Azerbaijan with his work at the event held under the hosting of Ankara Gazi University Rectorate. A certificate of appreciation was presented to Karaova by the Azerbaijan Presidency Ankara Embassy.

"The Pleasure of Finding Things Out," the book by Nobel Prize-winning physicist Richard Feynman, has been translated into Turkish by Dr. Murat Metehan Turkoglu, from the Department of the Faculty of Engineering and Architecture(English). The Turkish version of the book, titled "Keşfetmenin Hazzı," has been published and is now available for sale by Alfa Kitap.

This book, which has reached its second edition in Turkish, serves as an important resource for understanding Feynman's best works and his approach to research. It also includes Feynman's report on the Challenger Space Shuttle disaster investigation, in which he participated as a member of the scientific committee. The book is currently among the best-selling books in Turkey.

“NEWS PRODUCTION WITH ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE IS NOT POSSIBLE WITHOUT HUMAN CONTROL”

28 APRIL

2023

With the developing technology, the concept of “Artificial Intelligence” provides convenience in many sectors and in different areas of life. Discussions about whether artificial intelligence can do “journalism” are also on the agenda. Making statements on the subject, Asst. Prof. Dr. Özgür Evren Arık stated that artificial intelligence has the opportunity to access and categorize much more data than a human; however, news production with artificial intelligence is almost impossible without human supervision and control.
