“SOLAR ENERGY PROJECTS ARE SIGNIFICANT FOR A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE”

1 FEBRUARY

2024

Turkiye's strong moves in the energy sector were revealed once again with the “2023 Electricity Market Sector Report” recently announced by the Ministry of Energy and Natural Resources. Evaluating the report, which gives ideas about the year 2024 and beyond, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hakan Yıldırım and Businessman Ahmet Emre Cengiz stated that 99.5 percent of the 2858 megawatts of renewable energy increase recorded in 2023 is due to solar energy projects. These projects serve as an important bridge in reducing Turkiye's dependence on energy imports, ensuring its economic independence and building a sustainable future.
